Welcome: Jason Buelterman, Mayor of City of Tybee welcomed the group to Tybee Island. He commented on how important it was that there are representatives of each community to protect the cultural and architectural identity and create a sense of place.

Approval of Minutes: The Minutes of the February 10th meeting were discussed. Carrie Welter noted that their name be listed as the Welter's as well as the name of the farm to the Johnson Farm. There was a motion and a second and the minutes were approved unanimously with corrections.

Committee Reports:

- Cullen Chambers updated the Council on the recent Technical Advisory Committee workings in the region.
 - Continued efforts in Register
 - Dorchester Academy being nominated one of the 11 Most Endangered Historic Places by the NTHP and that contractor estimates for roof repairs are nearing $100K.

- Dr. Stewart's home and pharmacy in Portal has had contractors looking at masonry and lapboard siding for estimates.
- Jason Kotarski gave an update on the happenings at the last HP Planners retreat in Atlanta.

New Business:

- Matt Norsworthy opened the floor to discuss the location the November 10th meeting.
 - The Welters offered the Barn at Johnston Farm.
 - Betty Waller thought EHS may be ready to host.
 - Jan Bass is interested in hosting the Feb. 2010 meeting.
- Betty Waller and Betty Renfro spoke on the restoration being conducted by the Effingham Historical Society and the potential for hands on projects. Betty Waller handed out flyers for HES Museum and Living History Site.
- Mike Hosti spoke about Savannah Technical Colleges HP program and stated he is on the Advisory Committee. He thought the Council may be able to help the program during the start up period. Jan Bass mentioned putting out a notice in the Coastal Chart.
- HPAC guest Paul Griffin gave a brief overview of a project involving tabby ruins that he was looking for support on. The Council will look in to sending the TAC out for a site visit.
- Walt Natzic reported there is a new Superintendent at Cumberland Island. There are also two gravesite's undergoing preservation efforts, one being a Potter's Field. Pier Point is also having archeological work conducted and DNR and ACE have an interest.
- Tricia Reynolds facilitated the third work session to extract input from the Council. See attached work session notes. She also explained new modus operandi for the changing over of the RDC to a Regional Commission, the new DCA contract, and the upcoming Regional Plan.
- The next meeting will be held on August 11th, 2009 in Flemington, Liberty County.

Adjournment:

- The meeting adjourned. HPAC members toured Tybee Island and the Theatre.
